

Chief of Fire and Emergency Services

POSITION SUMMARY:

Provide 24/7 Fire and Emergency Services (FES) to the installation. Includes FES Management, Operations, and training and prevention capabilities.

MAJOR JOB ACTIVITIES:

1. Manage installation FES to include maintaining operating instructions, Master Plan, Standards of coverage, manpower, equipment and supplies. Develop and implement plans to cover for reduced operational capabilities; response, staffing, pollution prevention, safety of personnel, operational risk management, etc.
2. Provide 24/7 FES to the installation. Services include on-scene incident management, aircraft rescue and firefighting, structural firefighting, response to hazardous materials, technical rescue to include auto extrication and confined space rescue and emergency medical services support.
3. Inspect certify and perform operator maintenance on vehicles. Document all vehicle inspections and annual certification testing.
4. Maintain minimum quantity of combined firefighting vehicles, extinguishing agents and personnel for airfield category (ARFF Set 4 for Moron, ARFF Set 5 for Incirlik).
5. Fire prevention: ensure fire inspection and fire drill frequency is appropriate to facility occupancy classification.
6. Train personnel in fire prevention on initial arrival and annually.
7. Manage and document recurring proficiency training and firefighter certification programs for all functional areas of FES.
8. Train and remain proficiency in First Aid/First Responder capabilities.
9. Ensure all communications equipment and facilities comply with NFPA 1221, Standard for Installation, Maintenance and Use of Emergency Services Communications Systems.
10. Ensure coverage for Optimum Level of Service for CAT 8 airfield vehicle set 4 for Moron (CAT 9 for Incirlik).
11. Provide 24/7 base recovery response capability, participate fully in base exercises and assist exercise planning as required.

MATERIAL & EQUIPMENT DIRECTLY USED:

Must be able to work in potentially dangerous situations fighting fires & rescue operations and utilizing various firefighting equipment. Also work in office utilizing basic office automation and software.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

1. Exposed to hazardous environments which may include firefighting operations, rescue services and hazardous material incidents.
2. Works in a general office and shop environment.
3. Possibility of being recalled for emergencies 24/7.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Education/Certifications: One year related experience may be substituted for one year of education, if degree is required.

An associate's or higher degree in fire technology. Meet position certifications IAW DOD 6055.06-M.

Experience:

Fifteen years fire protection experience with five years as Fire Chief or Deputy Chief

Skills:

Have experience directing firefighting operations to include fighting aircraft and structural fires, performing rescue services, and responding to hazardous materials incidents, medical emergencies, and confined space rescues. Have knowledge of the chemistry of fire, preventive maintenance and operations of firefighting and rescue equipment, physical and chemical properties of combustible materials and building structures and their component systems. Have experience in managing fire prevention and protection plans and programs. Assumes full charge at crashes, fire, or emergency situations, directing activities and personnel, transmitting instructions to Assistant Chiefs on the scene or other personnel as to the procedures to be followed contingent on complexity of the incident type (3-1). Personally takes charge when highly classified weapons or equipment are involved in fire

Desired Skills:

Spanish language skills.

SUPERVISORY/BUDGET RESPONSIBILITIES:

SUPERVISION:

General supervision

How to apply:

Vectrus.com/careers

<https://vectrusjobs.taleo.net/careersection/jobdetail.ftl?job=TUR000137&lang=en>