

INDUSTRIAL FIREFIGHTER
Baton Rouge, Louisiana
2 current openings

Industrial Emergency Services, LLC ("IES") is a leading provider of fire safety, first responder and emergency response services and staffing. IES's customers include some of the largest and most successful industrial companies in the world, from integrated energy companies to auto manufacturers, pipeline and terminal business and marine services companies.

IES is currently considering candidates for Firefighters in the Baton Rouge, Louisiana area - Full-time and Part-time position openings.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

- Respond to all types of fires and a wide variety of emergencies, including hazardous materials incidents, rescues, auto accidents, natural disasters, and other emergency situations; performs searches, suppresses and extinguishes fires, and performs related life and property protection; and provides emergency and medical care at a basic and advanced life support level
- Identifies, isolates, and contains hazardous materials in a safe and effective manner
- Drives emergency vehicles and operates related apparatus in order to respond to emergency calls and scenes
- Participates in on-going training and education sessions
- Ensures the proper condition, maintenance, and appearance of apparatus and equipment; prepares and ensures vehicles and apparatus are ready for immediate response
- Participates in the daily functions of the station duties which may include: housekeeping, maintenance activities, and/or performing other related duties
- Assists in completing and maintaining records related to personnel, incidents, and/or other related items
- Participates in fire department programs, such as pre-fire planning, fire prevention programs, and/or fire hydrant, post indicator valve and sprinkler checks
- Participates in and/or facilitates training sessions and station tours to the public on fire related topics
- Performs other duties as assigned including possible deployment to other locations for up to 30 days

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Firefighter I or NFPA 1081 equivalent
- Emergency Medical Responder, EMT preferred
- Hazardous Materials and Rescue Training preferred

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

- Wages commensurate with responsibility and experience

- Healthcare insurance, long-term disability and ADD (full-time positions only)
- Paid Holidays, Vacation and Sick Leave (full-time positions only)
- 401(k) plan (full-time positions only)

Please apply at www.iesllc.com/careers