

Current Opening:

Job Title: Alarm Communications Operator - Fire Dept

Location: VANCE AFB, ENID, OK-OK015

Positions available: One (1)

Job Description:

ASRC Federal Communications is seeking an Alarm Room Operator in support of our Vance AFB Base Operations Support Contract Located in Enid Oklahoma.

Responsibilities:

- Operation of the Fire Department Communications Center.
- Maintains station log, records all incoming voice communications, and maintains the center in a clean and orderly manner.
- Must be able to speak clearly under stress and write legibly.
- Responsible for keeping TO's, Regulations, Charts, Maps, and other items essential to the center's operation in current status and in assigned location.
- Operates Base after hour's communication system as required.
- Accepts after hour's trouble calls, inputs into computer and/or contacts EMCS personnel for troubleshoot or scheduling of craftsman.
- Performs other related duties as assigned.

ASRC Federal and its Subsidiaries are Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action employers. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, gender, color, age, sexual orientation, gender identification, national origin, religion, marital status, ancestry, citizenship, disability, protected veteran status, or any other factor prohibited by applicable law.

Requirements

DOD/IFSAC Certification in Hazmat Awareness

Telecommunicator I & II

Physical and Certification Requirements must be met.

Secret Security Clearance Required

Flex Schedule

To apply:

www.asrcfederal.com/careers

More information:

Contact the ECC Supervisor: Jeanie Pharis, jeanie.pharis.ctr@us.af.mil; 580-213-7789